

HBCU Panel on Scholarly Communication and Open Access

Hilton Garden Inn

Atlanta, GA.

October 26 – 28, 2014

Murle Kenerson, Interim Dean

Libraries and Media Centers

Who Initiated the Conversation to Purchase Digital Scholarship?

- Dean of Libraries and Medial Center
- Staff

How Did We Decide What Initiatives or Projects to Undertake?

- Established Editorial Boards
- Established Journals
 - Engaged: The Journal of Tennessee State University
 - Sketches: The Online Creative Arts Journal of Tennessee State University
- Encouraged Student Thesis and Dissertation Submission

Current Initiatives

- Spoken Word
- Creative Writing Groups

The Horizon

- Persuade the Departments and Colleges to Initiate their own journals for inclusion in the Digital Depository
- Convince those who already have journals to include them in our Digital Depository
- Include Photographic Presentation Projects in our Digital Depository
- Include LibGuides in our Digital Depository
- Appoint a point person in the Library to market this service the faculty

Lessons Learned: Advice to Colleagues

- Faculty Buy-In
 - Facilitate Communication Exchange
 - Engage Faculty Senate
 - Appoint Faculty Liaisons

Digital Scholarship@Tennessee State University

Dear Author,

- Your Author Dashboard shows you had 61 new downloads in September 2014 of your 1 paper in Digital Scholarship @ Tennessee State University. This brings your total readership to 283.

Kenerson, Murle E. and Moon, Fletcher F., "Assessing Information Literacy Instruction in Selected English Classes At Tennessee State University" (2012). Library Faculty and Staff Publications and Presentations. Paper 14.
<http://digitalscholarship.tnstate.edu/lib/14>

Downloads and Browsing

- Total Number of Articles in Digital Scholarship : 1,264
- 1,173 articles got 25,446 hits during the 2013-14.